Re: Herrera-Zurita, Miguel Angel*August 31, 2010*Page 2

On August 25, 2010, Yakima police officers were dispatched to the area of North Sixth Avenue and Fairbanks Avenue in the city of Yakima, Washington, in reference to subjects fighting. Once officers arrived at the location, the subjects began to flee the scene. Some of the subjects were apprehended, including Mr. Herrera-Zurita, who was identified as one of the fighters. Upon contact with Mr. Herrera-Zurita, the arresting officer reported he could smell a strong odor of intoxicants coming from the defendant's person. Mr. Herrera-Zurita advised the police officer he was "jumped" by someone a few blocks away. Mr. Herrera-Zurita was bleeding from the face and had scratches all over his chest and back. The defendant's eyes were watery and bloodshot and he spoke with a slurred speech. According to the officer's report, the defendant was having difficulty walking in a straight line. Prior to the defendant being placed in the back of the police vehicle, he had to lean against the trunk of the car to help him balance. Mr. Herrera-Zurita was issued a criminal citation for minor exhibiting the effects of alcohol in public and was subsequently booked into the Yakima City Jail.

On August 30, 2010, Mr. Herrera-Zurita posted bail and was released from custody. On August 31, 2010, Mr. Herrera-Zurita went to Casa de Esperanza and obtained a drug and alcohol evaluation. The defendant has agreed to participate in recommended treatment. Additionally, the defendant has also agreed to the modified conditions as noted above. The attached waiver and hearing to modify conditions of supervised release was reviewed with Mr. Herrera-Zurita. He was advised of the potential impact this modification could have on his supervision, and he acknowledged this understanding verbally and with his signature.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
